

Student Feedback – Stuart Jones

The following feedback is from student evaluations from Troy and Auburn. Updated as of May 2020.

- This class is very good and teacher and classmates are very nice
- Very much cares about his students, great class
- Stuart is an amazing professor. He cares about his students and want each and every one of them to succeed. He goes above and beyond to help each every one of us and he is the only reason I was able to get through this class. His class is hard but it's managable because he is so helpful. He is the best professor I've had at Auburn so far.
- Mr. Jones is a very nice and personable guy.
- Mr. Jones made this class very easy to understand and comprehend, and I have never had another professor care so much about the student's succeeding.
- Fantastic teacher, very helpful outside the classroom.
- I really liked his website and teaching style. I enjoyed the course.
- Super helpful and always available if we needed help. He was always very accommodating to our needs.
- Mr jones is a very personable teacher who will work with you in order to help your success. Truly cares about his students.
- Mr. Jones is a very good professor, very helpful outside of class.
- Mr. Jones is a caring professor. He really wants every student to succeed and will do anything to help you understand. He really enjoys his job and is good at it. He holds virtual office hours before test to answer any and all of your questions which helps tremendously. I highly recommend taking him for any math class.
- Mr. Jones is a very laid back guy and it's obvious he enjoys what he does! Attendance is not mandatory but I highly recommend going. He made class enjoyable and was very helpful on test and homework all semester.
- Very willing to help outside of class
